DECISION AWARDING DAMAGES¹

Dorsey, Chief Special Master:

On March 24, 2017, petitioner filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, et seq.,² (the “Vaccine Act”). Petitioner alleges that she suffered a right shoulder injury as a result of a hepatitis B vaccination administered on June 17, 2016. Petition at 1, 3. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

On November 17, 2017, a ruling on entitlement was issued, finding petitioner entitled to compensation for a SIRVA. On December 14, 2017, respondent filed a proffer on award of compensation (“Proffer”) indicating petitioner should be awarded $83,461.59 representing compensation for pain and suffering ($81,250.00) and past unreimbursable expenses ($2,211.59). Proffer at 1-2. In the Proffer, respondent represented that petitioner agrees with the proffered award. Based on the record as a whole, the undersigned finds that petitioner is entitled to an award as stated in the Proffer.

Pursuant to the terms stated in the attached Proffer, the undersigned awards petitioner a lump sum payment of $83,461.59 (representing $81,250.00 for pain and suffering and $2,211.59 for past unreimbursable expenses) the form of a check payable to petitioner, Krystal Alcott. This amount represents compensation for all damages that would be available under § 300aa-15(a).

The clerk of the court is directed to enter judgment in accordance with this decision.³

IT IS SO ORDERED.

³ Pursuant to Vaccine Rule 11(a), entry of judgment can be expedited by the parties' joint filing of notice renouncing the right to seek review.

Petitioner is a competent adult. Evidence of guardianship is not required in this case.

Respondent recommends that the compensation provided to Krystal Alcott should be made through a lump sum payment as described below and requests that the Chief Special Master's decision and the Court's judgment award the following¹: a lump sum payment of $83,461.59, representing compensation for pain and suffering ($81,250.00), and past unreimbursable expenses ($2,211.59), in the form of a check payable to petitioner, Krystal Alcott.

III. Summary of Recommended Payments Following Judgment

Lump sum payable to petitioner, Krystal Alcott: $83,461.59
